Detail: The Enneagram and Spiritual Accompaniment

This workshop will give participants a day to reflect on how the Enneagram can inform us in our work of journeying with people as they seek to deepen their relationship with the Divine, whether or not they have an understanding of the Enneagram.

We will be exploring both the importance of using the Enneagram as a typology and as a spiritual map to the soul in our companioning people on their journey.

We will have some presentation time, some small group time, and some time to share our own stories of how the Enneagram has been helpful in our work.

A basic understanding of the Enneagram would be helpful for this conversation, but is not a requirement.

Facilitator: Rick McCorrister is an experienced spiritual director, educator, and group facilitator who enjoys sharing his passion for the spiritual journey with others and focusing on ways to strengthen their spiritual journey. He has studied the Enneagram in its various forms for over 20 years, and has a significant appreciation for its use in self-understanding, in relationship building, and as a map for the spiritual journey. As a long-time educator, he brings a process of presentation and individual and group work to every event he coordinates. To facilitate a deep understanding of the Enneagram for our current lives, Rick incorporates the work of many contemporary Enneagram teachers along with that of George I. Gurdjieff, an early 20th century mystic. Rick is a graduate of the Pacific Jubilee Program in Spiritual Formation and Spiritual Direction.
