

Amid the Uncertainties - Called to Hope: Writing Our Great Story into the Future

A RETREAT FOR RELIGIOUS WOMEN AND MEN - NOVICES AND VOWED 55 YEARS OF AGE AND YOUNGER!

with Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI

Women and Men Religious, Novices and Vowed, 55 years and younger from across Canada are warmly invited to gather this summer at Queen's House Retreat and Renewal Centre in Saskatoon SK and come together to meet, pray and support each other as they serve the People of God. Come for a time of refreshment, renewal and learning with Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI.

Ron Rolheiser was born in Macklin, Saskatchewan and was raised in a large family on a farm near Cactus Lake SK. Following his school years, Ron entered the novitiate of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate and was ordained to the priesthood in 1972; Ron continued his education, receiving a B.A., B.Th., M.A., M.R.Sc. and Ph.D/STD. During and after his own studies, he taught theology and philosophy at Newman Theological College, in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. In 1982, while living and studying in Belgium, Fr. Ron began to write a regular feature column. 32 years later, the popular column is carried by almost 100 newspapers worldwide and has published 11 books.

Fr. Ron is in demand and well known as speaker. Keeping an active speaking schedule, his retreats and workshops have inspired many. Along with his academic knowledge in systematic theology and philosophy, he has become a popular speaker in the areas of contemporary spirituality and religion and the secular world. Oblate Communications has produced 14 DVDs of his retreats that are well loved for both individual and group use.

In 1991, while on sabbatical, Fr. Ron was asked by his religious community to serve as the Provincial Superior. In August 2005, Fr. Ron became the President of the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio Texas, a position he maintains to this day. Fr. Ron is also known for his commitment to prayer and exercise, a continuing love of sports, his sense of humor, his loyalty to his friends, and the enjoyment of the odd cigar and fine scotch.
