

Mission Statement

At the service of the church and one with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate whose mission is that of Jesus Christ sent to announce good news to the poor, freedom to captives and new vision to the blind (Luke 4), Queen's House is primarily committed to the renewal of the people of God with special regard for those who are feeling alienated and those who suffer.

A place of hospitality, beauty and quiet, Queen's House welcomes all peoples in their unique life experiences. They come to pray and worship, to seek healing and human dignity, to grow in knowledge of self, the world and God. With risk and daring Queen's House responds to these needs through creative programs and collaborative ministry.

Embracing its own need for conversion, Queen's House looks to the day when all may love tenderly, act justly and walk in truth with one another and with God (Micah 6).

Women in Ministry

Once a month women gather at Queen's House for lunch and the opportunity to support each other in their respective ministries.

This invitation goes out to all women, lay and ordained, who are employed in professional ecclesial ministry (parish/congregational, chaplaincy, diocesan, educational, retreat facilitation, spiritual direction), those who are retired from an employed ministry position, and those studying for professional ecclesial ministry. The main purpose for these lunches is to create an informal relational space where women working professionally in ministry can connect across denominational lines and form networks of friendship, communication and support.

The "sisterhood" of other women is a blessing as we share our pilgrim stories, as we laugh, as we brush away the occasional tear, and as we celebrate our giftedness to offering ministry in the 21st century. I discover (again) the strength that women bring to the Christian church and the passion we offer despite being turned away sometimes from giving our gifts fully. The church has much to lose if it fails to accept what we can offer.

The Rev. Marie-Louise Ternier is an Anglican deacon and has been married to Jim for 38 years. She is a mother and grandmother. In addition to a Masters in Divinity, Marie-Louise has extensive training in spiritual direction, ecumenical and intercultural ministry. She is an accomplished author and freelance writer, a popular retreat leader, preacher and conference speaker. Marie-Louise has worked in diocesan and parish ministry, in ecumenical dialogues and ministry as well as guiding private retreats. For the past ten years she has been coordinating an ecumenical network for women in ministry. Marie-Louise and Jim live in Humboldt, SK.

In 2012 I was a newcomer to Saskatoon and this group gave me the opportunity to meet leaders in the community – both active and retired – and begin to form warm, supportive relationships. This group has assisted in helping me to feel at ease in various ecumenical and interfaith settings – inevitably I would see a familiar face and feel more at home. This group celebrates the unique gifts of women in ministry and recognizes the challenges – we listen to each other.
