

Women's Workshop Series with Colleen Kehler

Author/ Illustrator of "To Trust Again"

- . What if you could find a place to meet with other great women
- . What if this place felt like a sanctuary; a place where the coffee pot is on, and there is enough warmth and laughter to go around the room
- . What if you could learn, share, and create within a safe, supportive community; a place where your presence matters

Well, there is a place just like that waiting for you at Queen's House.
Please join me for the last Saturday of the month from 9:30 - 11:30 am.
