Detail: Summer provides time for rest, reflection and renewal. Come to this peaceful riverside setting to restore, realign and strengthen your soul. Throughout this time in silence and solitude you will have opportunity to meet daily with a spiritual director and to spend time praying with scripture. Taking time for this retreat is a means to help you encounter God, become aware of the Spirit, and to live out more freely Christ's presence in your life. This retreat qualifies as a prerequisite for the upcoming Spiritual Direction Formation Program, beginning in January 2019.

Facilitators: Dianne Mantyka accompanies those on their path of becoming all they are created to be in loving relationship to God, self, nature and others. She holds an M.Div. with a Spiritual Theology concentration from Regent College, has CPE training, and has experience in inner healing prayer ministry and a variety of prayer forms. Her background includes biology, missions, and 19 years in Inter-Varsity campus ministry. She is a wife, care-giver, step-mom, Oma, and enjoys her family and friendships, the outdoors, reading, creativity, learning and empowering. With Queen's House, Dianne co-directs the Spiritual Direction Formation Program, is on the Programming Team and the Spiritual Directors Team, and offers Silent Directed Retreats and the Nineteenth Annotation. Her experience connects her with people from a variety of backgrounds. dimantyka@sasktel.net • 306-514-2193
