

Shakespeare on the Saskatchewan
“As You Like It”

Wednesday July 10, evening

A tradition has been growing during this retreat, one that many people have enjoyed in past years. You are invited to join with other retreatants in attending this Shakespearean play. Carpooling will be arranged. Tickets are $20 - please let us know that you would like to attend. Approximately 30 tickets will be purchased for our group.

As You Like It will take you on a fantastical journey to an enchanting place where your quirks and oddities are celebrated, and you are free to love whomever you choose! The story features Rosalind, an intelligent young noblewoman who loses everything when she is banished by her aunt and forced to leave the only home she is ever known – but when she disguises herself as a young man of modest means she finds an unexpected freedom to express herself to the man she loves. It is a rollicking romp of a play interwoven with dancing, live music and a quadruple wedding. Throw in a reigning monarch that makes Marie Antoinette seem like a teddy bear, a pint sized though formidable duo, and a fool with a definite Mad Hatter vibe, and this will definitely be a show audiences get buzzing about!

Mission Statement

At the service of the church and one with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate whose mission is that of Jesus Christ sent to announce good news to the poor, freedom to captives and new vision to the blind (Luke 4), Queen’s House is primarily committed to the renewal of the people of God with special regard for the alienated and the suffering.

A place of hospitality, beauty and quiet, Queen’s House welcomes all peoples in their unique life experiences. They come to pray and worship, to seek healing and human dignity, to grow in knowledge of self, the world and God. With risk and daring Queen’s House responds to these needs through creative programs and collaborative ministry.

Embracing its own need for conversion, Queen’s House looks to the day when all may love tenderly, act justly and walk in truth with one another and with God (Micah 6).

A Home Away from Home

Recognizing God's Voice

THE CADENCE AND TONE
OF THE VOICE OF THE
GOOD SHEPHERD

Public Lecture - Monday July 8, 7pm

Jesus assures us that his disciples will recognize his voice. But we are surrounded by many voices which promise life. How do we recognize which is the voice of the Good Shepherd? How do we distinguish voices which infuse life from voices which lead us away from life? What is the cadence and tone of God's voice in this world? Discerning the voices that infuse life.

Prayer

OUR DEEPEST HUNGER
Continues July 9-11

How is prayer experienced as a hunger? How does the Spirit pray through us "in groans that are too deep for words"? How do we "pray always"? How do we pray when we are simply too distracted, tired, dissipated, and too disinterested to pray? What are the major formal types of prayer? How is liturgical prayer different from private prayer? What are solitude and contemplation? What is "Sabbath Time" and how is this prayer? This retreat will focus on answering those questions in a way that, hopefully, leads us into deeper prayer within our lives.

Departure

Fr. Ron Rolheiser was born in Macklin, Saskatchewan and was raised in a large family on a farm near Cactus Lake SK. Ron was ordained to the priesthood with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate in 1972; Ron continued his education, receiving a B.A., B.Th., M.A., M.R.Sc. and Ph.D/STD. He taught theology and philosophy at Newman Theological College, in Edmonton, Alberta. In 1982, while living and studying in Belgium, Fr. Ron began to write a regular feature column. Today, the popular column is carried by almost 100 newspapers worldwide and in addition, Ron has published 11 books. Fr. Ron is in demand and well known as a speaker; his retreats and workshops have inspired many. Along with his academic knowledge in systematic theology and philosophy, he speaks often in the areas of contemporary spirituality and religion and the secular world. In August 2005, Fr. Ron became the President of the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio Texas, a position he maintains to this day. Fr. Ron is also known for his commitment to prayer and exercise, a continuing love of sports, his sense of humor, his loyalty to his friends, and the enjoyment of the odd cigar and a fine scotch.
