

Mission Statement

At the service of the church and one with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate whose mission is that of Jesus Christ sent to announce good news to the poor, freedom to captives and new vision to the blind (Luke 4), Queen's House is primarily committed to the renewal of the people of God with special regard for the alienated and the suffering.

A place of hospitality, beauty and quiet, Queen's House welcomes all peoples in their unique life experiences. They come to pray and worship, to seek healing and human dignity, to grow in knowledge of self, the world and God. With risk and daring Queen's House responds to these needs through creative programs and collaborative ministry.

Embracing its own need for conversion, Queen's House looks to the day when all may love tenderly, act justly and walk in truth with one another and with God (Micah 6).

Retreat & Renewal Centre

A Home Away from Home

St. Augustine said "Believe what you see, see what you believe and become what you are: the Body of Christ." If the Eucharist, as Vatican II states, is the source and summit of Christian spirituality, how does this play out on an ecumenical playing field? Is the Eucharist the Table of the Lord or the Table of the Church? How do we draw spiritual nourishment from the Eucharist for the ecumenical path we have yet to travel? Do we take seriously our own "transubstantiation" when we pray for the Holy Spirit to change us as we receive Christ's Body and Blood?

These and other questions will be explored in a series of collaborative retreat-style presentations, ending with a celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Become What You EAT

If we really believed this about the Eucharist, what difference would this make in our lives, in the way we worship, and in our quest for Christian unity?
