Detail: This workshop will focus on the significance of dreams in our spiritual journey. It will remind all of us who walk, in a conscious and helpful way with others on this journey, that often the central issue to be attended to on a daily basis is given to us the night before in our sleep. Insight into this journey is given to us in many ways; however, our focus will be on the significance of dreams. Time permitting, various methodologies of working with our dreams will be offered.

Presenter: Dr. James Schmeiser

James Schmeiser is a Professor Emeritus of King's University College, Western University, London, Ontario. He introduced and taught courses on dreams and spirituality for many years. Presently he leads dream workshops, retreats and is a spiritual director in London and, by Skype, to wherever there is interest.
