Exploring the Gospel of Matthew

FIRST WEDNESDAY OF THE MONTH

1:00 - 2:30 p.m.

February - June

Come to one or several sessions

Adam Wright, PhD.

Exploring the Gospel of Matthew

This course is a study of the life and times of Jesus as described in the Gospel of Matthew. Participants will carefully read Matthew's Gospel and gain an appreciation for how the Gospel was crafted in light of its Jewish and Graeco-Roman context. You will also be asked to consider a number of the teachings of Jesus in light of contemporary culture, and learn new ways to incorporate the content of the Gospel into ministry and culture.
