Give Me Jesus

ASKING, EXPECTING & RECEIVING THIS ADVENT

What does it mean to long for Jesus during Advent, let alone during a global pandemic? How do we enter into God becoming human, in our own flesh and blood? Join Leah Perrault as we rest gently into the asking, expecting, and receiving of Jesus this Advent.

Session 1: Asking

Maybe it has been awhile since you wrote a list of all you wanted for Christmas. But since God has promised us the Son, what are you asking Jesus to bring to you specifically? What virtue lies in the spiritual practice of asking for what you need? And what is it you need this Advent?

Session 2: Expecting

What would it mean to expect God, to prepare for Divine coming with joyful anticipation and peaceful intention? We will find rest in anticipating without demanding, expecting without expectations, to make space for the response to our requests.

Session 3: Receiving

How do we open ourselves to the gift of Jesus? Receiving is a discipline we can practice during Advent so that there is room for the joy Jesus brings, however this Christmas looks. Right here, in what is, Advent will deliver God into our world again, and we can be (a little more) ready.
