

In 2012 I was a newcomer to Saskatoon and this group gave me the opportunity to meet leaders in the community – both active and retired – and begin to form warm, supportive relationships. Women in Ministry assisted in helping me to feel at ease in various ecumenical and interfaith settings – inevitably I would see a familiar face and feel more at home. This group celebrates the unique gifts of women in ministry and recognizes the challenges – we listen to each other.

To Come Home to Yourself

May all that is unforgiven in you,
be released.

May your fears yield their deepest tranquilities.

May all that is un-lived in you,
blossom into a future,
graced with love.

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands,
with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Women in Ministry

Once a month women from across denominations gather for the opportunity to support each other in their respective ministries. In the coming months please check with Martha Fergusson, Coordinator, about the format the upcoming gatherings will use: Zoom or in-person at Queen's House.

This invitation goes out to all women, lay and ordained, who are employed in professional ministry (parish/congregational, chaplaincy, diocesan, educational, retreat facilitation, spiritual direction), those who are retired from an employed ministry position, and those studying for professional ecclesial ministry. The main purpose for these gatherings is to create an informal relational space where women working professionally in ministry can connect across denominational lines and form networks of friendship, communication and support.
