What is a Spiritual Director?

A Spiritual Director is someone who listens and has discerned a call to accompany others - especially those who are experiencing challenges - with finding meaning and wholeness in life. A Spiritual Director has personally experienced being accompanied by their own spiritual director, and has pursued appropriate training in this listening ministry.

The Spiritual Directors at Queen's House are representative of the wider ecumenical community and together bring a richness of wisdom and experience to provide a compassionate guiding presence to anyone seeking meaning in the complexities of life today.

This brochure gives a brief introduction to Queen's House Team of Spiritual Directors. Additional information about each one is provided on our website. If you would like to meet with any one of these Spiritual Directors you may contact them personally.

Spiritual Direction can be offered in person or on zoom. If you would like to meet in-person at Queen's House, please check with a spiritual director to inquire about that option. During this time of COVID, spiritual direction conversations are being held in larger meeting spaces at the retreat centre, where director and directee can sit more than 6 feet apart.

If you are new to Spiritual Direction and have any questions, please contact Sr. Adeline (top of next page). A suggested offering for a Spiritual Director is a sliding scale from $25 to $80 per session, and payment is made directly to the director.

Sister Adeline M. Behm is a life-long seeker through the pathways of darkness. She provides a contemplative space conducive for conversation with those caught up in long painful struggles; as mentor for those who have been for many years on a spiritual path and those who desire to do a 5th-step and follow up. She coordinates spiritual direction through Queen's House.

Karen Block brings wealth of cross cultural living to spiritual direction. She offers a safe place of hospitality, to explore the journey of life by paying attention to the gift of presence - God's, ourselves and all creation. She believes one of our greatest challenges is learning to "let" God love us by learning to let that love transform us. As an artist, Karen invites discovery and expression of this journey through various art forms.

Gloria Mitchell has spent her career working with individuals moving through life transitions. She is practiced in the 'listening' of people's life stories, recognizing the potential for growing self awareness through reminiscing of events of joy, and loss. Sharing these reflections in a sacred and safe place often renders enlightenment through conversation, and contemplation towards finding God's presence, and grace in the everyday.
