The Shadow and the Mystery of Evil

Spiritual Directors encounter directees struggling with their personal shadow in recovery, conversions, and relationships. The currents of collective shadow also enter the director's room through politics, religious divisions, and projections.

The reality of evil is thrown in our face on the internet and news hourly, debilitating our hope.

This workshop supports our encounter with these realities as directors, and our need for supervision.

This workshop will be applicable for clergy, therapists, chaplains, and any in positions of spiritual influence and leadership. The value and reasons for seeing a spiritual director will be explored.
