What Happens in the Old Testament?

OLD TESTAMENT, NEW INSIGHT – A JOURNEY THROUGH THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES

Have you ever tried reading through the Old Testament, only to find yourself stalled at Leviticus? Or wondering what's the difference between the Exodus and the Exile? What are all those prophets complaining about? And why does God seem so angry all the time?

Noah's Ark On The Mount Ararat (1570) - Simon de Myle

God Appears to Noah
(1896-1902)
James Jacques Joseph Tissot
(French, 1836-1902)

Join Deb and Darcie on a trip through the Old Testament! Supported by key passages and hymns based on familiar readings, come and explore the history of Israel as it is told in sacred scripture, and trace the evolving understanding of who God is and what it means to be the people of God.

Discover and embrace a way of reading the Old Testament that allows us to interpret the "difficult" passages in a way that affirms both the merciful and loving nature of God and the joy of knowing that God acts in history to bring salvation to all creation.
