

Book Launch of Redeeming Jesus' Name by Sr. Maureena Fritz, NDS

The Winnipeg Tri-Diocesan Bat Kol Committee is pleased to welcome to Saskatoon Sr. Maureena Fritz, NDS where she will present her latest book, Redeeming Jesus' Name. Sr. Maureena, native of Saskatoon, SK, has lived in Jerusalem for over 30 years. She is professor emerita of St. Michael's College, Toronto, and founder of the Bat Kol Institute in Jerusalem whose mission is the study of Jewish scriptures using Jewish sources.

In the Foreword of the book it states that "she appeals to her fellow Christians to recognize, honestly and humbly, that the roots of antisemitism that has persisted throughout history of the West are to be found in the New Testament itself and in the traditional Christian theology of 'supersessionism,' i.e. Christian supremacy over Judaism and all other religions."

This work for the 98-year-old from the Sisters of Zion is viewed as her 'final testament' and she will present it on Monday, June 10, 6:30 p.m. at Queen's House Retreat & Renewal Centre. Comments on the book following Sr. Maureena will be offered by speakers from the Saskatoon area: Rabbi Jeremy Parnes, Beth Jacob Synagogue, Regina, Assistant Professor Alisha Pomazon, St. Thomas More College, and Fr. David Tumback, St. Patrick RC Parish.

There is no cost to attend, but registration is appreciated by the planning committee. Copies of Sr. Maureena's book will be sold for $20 cash.
