Foundations of Spiritual Companionship

AN INTRODUCTORY TRAINING PROGRAM FOR THOSE WANTING TO BE A COMPASSIONATE PRESENCE WITH OTHERS

This four-session program provides an opportunity to develop your skills in listening and spiritual companionship. Learn how to walk alongside others on their journey, supporting them through your listening presence.

This interfaith program is for those who wish to volunteer in the community, provide care within their faith-group, or further develop their supportive presence with those they encounter. This interactive training will provide skills, discussion, and small-group interaction as we practice active listening, attend to feelings, and focus on providing a compassionate presence to others.

Wednesday evenings, November 18, 25
December 2, 9
6:30 - 8:30 p.m. CST

Cost: $80 for four sessions

Recordings of the main presentation of each session will be available to anyone who is unable to attend all four sessions.

An online event offered through Zoom

A minimum of 9 participants are needed to offer this program.

Registration deadline: November 16.
